Interrupting Silence illustrates that the Bible is filled with stories where marginalized people break repressive silence and speak against it. Brueggemann motivates readers to consider situations in their lives where they need to interrupt silence, convincing us that God is active and wanting us to act for justice. The themes explored through eight chapters are a unique Lenten study experience. Questions for discussion included for each chapter.	Lent recalls times of wilderness and wandering, from newly freed Hebrew slaves in exile to Jesus' temptation in the desert. Despite our culture of self-indulgence, we too are called to walk an alternative path—one of humility, justice, and peace. Brueggemann's thought-provoking reflections for the season of Lent invite us to consider the challenging, beautiful life that comes with walking the way of grace.	Lent, a time to reflect on our Christian journey, is an appropriate time to deepen our understanding and practice of forgiveness. In six brief chapters, Thompson uses biblical examples and real-life situations to illustrate each chapter's theme in an informative and engaging way. A study guide is also included at the back of the book that is appropriate for either individual reflection or group discussion.	African American spirituals provide profound insights into the human condition and many focus on the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and the ways in which those events bring about the liberation of God's people. In these devotions for the season of Lent, Powery provides readers with the lyrics of a spiritual, a reflection on the spiritual's meaning, a Scripture verse related to that meaning, and a brief prayer.	From Hagar and the Hebrew prophets to Jesus in the wilderness to St. Francis and Catherine of Siena, we see how escape from the toil and temptations of daily life can open our eyes, ears, minds, and hearts to the still, small voice of God. Holy Solitude offers daily reflections for the season of Lent and introduces readers to figures in both Scripture and Christian history whose stories of discernment and discipline are a guide for our own spiritual practices.	These forty-seven stirring devotions guide and inspire readers as they move thematically through the weeks of Lent and Easter, encountering themes of prayerful reflection, self-denial, temptation, suffering, and the meaning of the cross. Each day includes passages from Dietrich Bonhoeffer's letters and sermons, Scripture verses, and prayers, creating daily devotions that are moving reminders of the true gift of Christ on the cross.

Lent for Everyone: Matthew, Year A provides readers with an inspirational guide through the Lenten season, from Ash Wednesday through the week after Easter. Wright provides his own Scripture translation, a brief reflection, and a prayer for each day of the season. By the end of the book, readers will have been through the entirety of Matthew, along with Psalm readings for each Sunday. Suitable for both individual and group study and reflection.	Rowan Williams, former Archbishop of Canterbury, presents the Gospel accounts of Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection as viewed through the eyes of those who witnessed them. The Sign and the Sacrifice explores the meaning of the cross and the significance of Christ's resurrection, discussing what these events meant to Jesus' followers in the early years and what they can say to us today. Questions for discussion included.	In this imaginative retelling, John Pritchard explores the Gospel of Luke by looking through the eyes of the disciple John. The Journey to Jerusalem follows Luke's account from Luke 9:51, as Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem." Perfect for individual or group study, The Journey to Jerusalem provides weekday readings for Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Good Friday, along with a poem for each Saturday. Questions for reflection and discussion are also included.	In 40 Days, 40 Prayers, 40 Words , Reyes-Chow encourages readers to pause in the bustle of their daily lives. Forty devotions are each framed around a word inspired by the daily lectionary readings and include a short scriptural passage, prayer, and reflection. Readers also have the ability to connect with others through interactive elements like QR codes that link to social media and provide access to additional reflections, graphics, and prayers.	Walking with Jesus through the Old Testament invites readers to embark on a journey with Christ throughout the Lenten season. Stroble imagines what Jesus would have said to his companions and guides readers along the way with forty-six devotions referencing the Old Testament. A prayer and a set of "digging deeper" activities are also included to help readers engage with each reflection on a personal level.	In Executing God , theologian Sharon Baker presents a biblically based and theologically sound critique of popular theories of the atonement. Concerned about the number of acts of violence performed in the name of God, Baker challenges cultural assumptions about the death of Jesus and its meaning to Christians. She ultimately offers a constructive alternate view of atonement based on God's forgiveness that opens up salvation to a wider group of people.

Brian K. Blount	Peter K. Stevenson & Stephen I. Wright	Edited by Kimberly Bracken Long, David L. Bartlett, & Barbara Brown Taylor

Brian K. Blount helps preachers effectively proclaim resurrection in a world consumed by death. Recognizing that both popular culture and popular Christianity are mesmerized by death and dying, Blount offers an alternative apocalyptic vision for our time—one that starts with a clear vision of life that obliterates death and reveals life's essence. Blount explores the portrait and meaning of resurrection through the New Testament and explores how to biblically and theologically reconfigure apocalyptic preaching for today. With three illustrative sermons, this book is an ideal resource to help preachers proclaim the power of resurrection.	Preaching the Atonement is a unique teaching tool that offers a theological discussion of ten important Bible passages connected with the sacrifice of Christ. Each chapter includes a complete sermon on the passage in question followed by a discussion from the authors that highlights the preacher's strategy in the theological interpretation of the text and its incorporation into the rhetoric of the sermon.	This resource is an all-in-one worship companion designed for those who do not follow the lectionary, or would like an alternative to the lectionary during Lent. This pastor's companion for Lent and Holy Week offers pastors focused resources for sermon preparation along with ready-to-use liturgies. A complete order of service is provided for each of the Sundays in Lent, plus Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday. Hymn suggestions, midweek services, and children's sermon suggestions make this an invaluable resource for the season of Lent.
